

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dean Schrempp has been involved in Amateur Boxing for over 64 years as a boxer, coach, judge, referee, timekeeper, clerk and officer in the Local Boxing Club, USA Boxing South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Dean was a leader in the advancement of amateur boxing in South Dakota with the link between USA Boxing and South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Many young coaches have been guided by Dean's training and knowledge as they have gone on to train other young boxers in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Dean helped break the barrier between male and female amateur boxers in South Dakota, encouraging the sport to be open to all competitors regardless of gender; and,

Whereas, Dean has guided youth from rural South Dakota, on and off South Dakota's reservations, in the world of amateur boxing. A great number of youth have been mentored under Dean's tutelage as a coach; and,

Whereas, Dean has coached many boxers at local, state, regional and national events, with many achieving national rankings, and has championed South Dakota as a significant competitor in amateur boxing; and,

Whereas, Dean exemplifies the Spirit of the Plains in dedication to family, community, state, culture and country;

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 31, 2006, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
